

Trust

Among the Thirsty

I cannot feel, my heart won't heal
I lost the song I used to sing
Just a memory inside of me
So take my broken crown, I lay it down
Let the rain fall all around
'Cause I can always hide beneath your wing
'Cause I believe in you
And I'll trust
In every promise that You've made
For Your love's not fading
It's never changing
I'll trust
Through this pain I give You praise
I surrender now
Lord, I lay me down
And I'll trust
I'm looking at my life, the wrongs and rights
I can see where You stepped in
The evidence I can't deny
Looking back from here, it's finally clear
The truth was always by my side
And I was walking on the water all this time
And I'll trust
In every promise that You've made
No, Your love's not fading
It's never changing
I'll trust
Through this pain I give you praise
I surrender now
Lord, I lay me down
And I'll trust
Yeah, I'll trust
Even when I'm broken
Standing on the ocean
I know I'm not alone at all
I know You'll never let me fall
Standing in a hurricane
When the earth starts to shake
I know I'm not alone at all
I know You'll never let me fall
I know You'll never let me fall
So I'm gonna trust

In every promise that You've made
No, Your love's not fading
It's never changing
I'll trust
Through this pain I give You praise
I surrender now
Lord, I lay me down
And I'll trust
I will believe and I'll trust
