My Woman, My Wife

Marty Robbins

Hands that are strong but wrinkled Doing work that never gets done

Hair that's lost some of the beauty

By too many hours in the sunEyes that show some disappointment

And there's been quite a lot in her life

She's the foundation I lean on

My woman, my wifeEveryday has been uphill

We climb but we can't reach the top

I'm weak and I'm easily discouraged

She just smiles when I want to stop

Lips that are weary but tender

With love that strengthens my life

A saint in a dress made of gingham

My woman, my woman, my wifeTwo little babies were born in the spring

But died when the winter was new

I lost control of my mind and my soul

But my woman's faith carried us throughWhen she reaches that river

Lord, you know what she's worth

Give her that mansion up yonder

'Cause she's been through hell here on earth

Lord, give her my share of Heaven

If I've earned any here in this life

'Cause God, I believe she deserves it

My woman, my woman, my wife

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/