

Lies

Korn

I would like to search inside for all of the things that you will hide.
What's the problem?
Can't you seem to search through these problems that haunt & taunt you?
I smile while you're afraid
You run while you're so in pain. Do you ever see it outside your fears?
Thinkin' about your life
Thinkin' about your inner fears. Do you ever see it out from side your fears?
Thinkin' about your life
Thinkin' about your inner fears. I would like to search inside for all of the things that you will hide.
What's the problem?
Can't you seem to open your body & let me touch you?
Do you ever see it outside your fears?
Thinkin' about your life
Thinkin' about your inner fears. Do you ever see it out from side your fears?
Thinkin' about your life
Thinkin' about your inner fears. I want you to see the life you have disguised
The world of things that hurt you
Fucked all these useless lies
I want you to fear the you wound up inside
Once I took you in I'll throw you out next time. I tried you win.
My life is rippin' your heart out & destroyin' my pain!
Go! Do you ever see it outside your fears?
Thinkin' about your life
Thinkin' about your inner fears.
Do you ever see it out from side your fears?
Thinkin' about your life
Thinkin' about your inner fears.
Do you ever see it outside your fears?
Thinkin' about your life
Thinkin' about your inner fears.
Do you ever see it outside your fears?
Thinkin' about your life
Thinkin' about your inner fears.
