I Knew I Couldn't Trust You

Silverstein

I knew I couldn't trust you back when we were kids
You sold me out, you ran and hid
From all your problems, can't even face your friends
Your best friendsYou're holding something in tonight
And I can tell you're not alright
Your poker face concealing
All the cards that you're not dealing
Cross your arms, avert your eyes
You're like a child ashamed to cry
The words inside your head
When I find out you'll wish you saidI let you down so many times
But I can't ever tell you this
There is no forgiving it
I promised you I'd always be there
But that couldn't be less true
It's the worst thing I could do
You're gonna bet it all on black
And when it's gone you'll want it back
Cause truth will mix with reason
And cheating's the ultimate treason
And I could see through you like glass
Slither around below the grass
Garden of Eden burning
Forbidden fruit, you won't discern itI let you down so many times
But I can't ever tell you this
There is no forgiving it
I promised you I'd always be there
But that couldn't be less true
It's the worst thing I could doMy loss, your gain
Do you love to play this way?
I'll cross your face
Hold in the pain
We're better off this way
We don't explain
We're better off this way
Friends are in vain
We're better off this way
Better off this wayI knew I couldn't trust you back when we were kids
You sold me out, you ran and hid
From all your problems, can't even face your friends
Your best friendsI let you down so many times
But I can't ever tell you this

There is no forgiving it
I promised you I'd always be there
But that couldn't be less true
It's the worst thing I could do--Atlanticfayte
