

Anymore

Eric Roberson

This goes out to you!
This goes out to you!
And you, and you!
Late night tears
As well as fears
To give up now is like
Really wasting years
My friends say I need to Leave to
Believe you, me
I would, but I can't
So it's back to square 1
But not like day 1 'cause
That day was fun
But as soon that I entered
I was lost like a key
To the door that slammed
Locked behind me.
Sometimes I hate it,
How can you have it without
Being reciprocated.
Well in short
That is the story I live
So take sent and give sent
I give and I give
Well, I guess I take too
Take to many lies.
Take too many tries at making sense.
And what I realize
And that's that
What we had before ain't never coming back
We don't talk anymore
Hold hands when we walk anymore
Love in the dark anymore
I don't see the spark anymore
I want to do it
We don't rock anymore
We don't talk anymore
Hold hands when we walk anymore
Love in the dark anymore
We don't, I don't
See the spark anymore.

I wanna do it all,
How we rock, anymore
I tried to write you a letter
Maybe it'll be better if I get my thoughts together.
You didn't even read it, you just left it.
But no effort, you said effort
Wow, now that hit me like a bomb in Bagdad.
Now, we had good time but the bad was so bad.
And the good was never had
I mean, my pad is filling up again
To turn this pain to profit
Maybe get some publishing
The publishing might leave me able to love again
This might be on the by side, turn it up!
Come on, break my heart, lets get over this,
Let's hurry up
Ok, were both to blame, come up, lessen up!
I be waking up in the morning with tears and years
Over us. Sooner or later I can put your love behind
But your behind is so fine
