I Don't Think So

Kelis

You think you might have a chance

I Don't Think So

You're tellin' me to be nice

I Don't Think So

You wanna get in my pants

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

You think you might have a chance

I Don't Think So

You're tellin' me to be nice

I Don't Think So

You wanna get in my pants

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

I can see it in your eyes

You talk to me like I'm your prize

But I don't want you in my life alright,

And I think you know that

I know what I really need

And trust me you're not at my speed

But I don't want you in my life alright,

You should know by now that You think you might have a chance

I Don't Think So

You're tellin' me to be nice

I Don't Think So

You wanna get in my pants

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

You think you might have a chance

I Don't Think So

You're tellin' me to be nice

I Don't Think So

You wanna get in my pants

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

You can try

You can lie

Till you die

You and I No

No

I Don't Think SoSorry you don't have a clue

But I don't have the time for you

Got my eye on someone else tonight,

And I think you know that

I'm the only force on me

But you keep living makebelieve

Got my eye on someone else tonight,

You should know by now that You think you might have a chance

I Don't Think So

You're tellin' me to be nice

I Don't Think So

You wanna get in my pants

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

You think you might have a chance

I Don't Think So

You're tellin' me to be nice

I Don't Think So

You wanna get in my pants

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think So

I Don't Think SoYou can try

You can lie

Till you die

You will die

No

No

I Don't Think So
