

Snowblind (feat. Tasha Baxter)

Au5

I'm running away from my past I left behind
Looking for answers, but I'm blinded by the light.
I'm lost in the the music, can I stay here for the night?
I promise I'll be gone in the morning, out of sight and out of mind.
Snowblind! Out of sight and out of mind!
Snowblind! Out of sight and out of mind!
Just for tonight, let your thoughts be free.
Just for tonight, won't you come with me?
Just for tonight, let the lines get blurred.
Just for tonight...
Ohhh, Snowblind! Out of sight and out of mind!
Just for tonight... Come with me... Blindly...
You know when you keep running, but your legs are standing still.
It's like you're stuck in a nightmare, but you keep doing it for the thrill.
Well, this is reality, you only live it once
So wake up from your dream.
But just fall to the night, let the lines get blurred
Let your thoughts be free. (Let your thoughts be free.)
Just for tonight, let your thoughts be free.
Just for tonight, won't you come with me?
Just for tonight, let the lines get blurred.
Just for tonight...
Ohhh, Snowblind! Out of sight and out of mind!
Ohhh, Snowblind! Out of sight and out of mind!
