

Driven

Sevendust

Stop the man from endin' up with all the chips
So he can't promise him an only chance
To have the freedom that's been taken from me You can try to lift your head, no

You  up with me, now live with the truth Find a reason to lie, try
Seems like it hasn't been long
I've given so much, how could you hide?
...You're sick with all the guilt, you're never forgiven

You try to wash it away, wash it away

...

Ask again, why, all the dreams I had are now left broken
...Punished for a wounded past
Afraid to wake and find reality breathin'
Why has life been taken from me?
...I  up and now I live with the truth With no reason to lie
I feel like it hasn't been long
I'm driven to keep myself alive
...You're sick with all the guilt, you're never forgiven

You'll never wash it away, wash it away

...

How can you live with yourself?

...

Seems like it hasn't been long
I've given so much, how could you hide?

you have your freedom for leavin'

...

'Cause you go wash it away
I feel like it hasn't been long
I'm driven to keep myself alive

...

You're sick with all the guilt, you're never forgiven

...

I'll never wash it away, wash it away

...

Stop dreamin'
