

If This World

Jaci Velasquez

nananananana nananana ooo, yea (2x) Do you feel you've been disowned left outside in the cold and without a home do you think that no one cares that you're lost and alone and without a prayer don't give in to the lie that there's no one you can turn to don't lose heart there is hope there is someone who will never desert you

CHORUS:

If this world is a lonely place for you fall into the arms of love
if this world is a lonely place for you there's a God that you can trust he'll comfort you and lift you up Nanananananana... etcare you looking for a friend who will stand by your side till the very end someone who is always true to his word be assured He won't turn from you put your faith in the One who will never let you down He has proven His love, open up to all He has for you Chorus he hears your cry
he sees your tears
he knows your pain
and all your fears
he waits for you
with open arms he longs to live inside your heart you'll never be alone again Chorus nananananana nanananana ooo yea (4x)
