

True Sisters (feat. Cinderella & Sofia)

The Cast of Sofia the First

Everyone's heard about the day that true love came for me
He carried me off and far away from my step family
But ever since I wed the prince
And left my hurt behind
There's one regret I won't forget
That weighs upon my mind
My step sisters let their jealousy harden their hearts
But when they ruined my ball gown
That's not all they tore apart
If only we had tried to see
A way to start a new
We may have found that this time round
Our friendship only grew
We could have been true sisters
If we only made amends
We could have been true true sisters
And ever after friends
You suddenly feel that all is lost
Frightened and alone
But maybe yours isn't the only heart
That's sinking like a stone
Though many of the ones you love
Are frozen in a trance
Someone who's a lot like you
Never made it to the dance
You could be true sisters
Sofia: Sisters
If you only make amends
True true sisters
Sofia: Sisters
And ever after friends
Both: And ever after friends
