

Funny Little Tragedy (feat. Elvis Costello)

Gov't Mule

Life has finally shown you It's a mean old world
The killer little soldier
Is now a scared little girl Always had everything Just handed to you Always had it your way I got to hand it to you And seeing you now all broken down, I gotta say It's a funny little tragedy a funny little tragedy
a funny little tragedy
Your standing on my doorstep
You say you've got nowhere to go You're all soaking wet
I've never seen you so low Sorry if I don't fall
For your tricks again
But I seem to recall
The way you did me in And now your new lover has left you high and dry, I gotta say... It's a funny little tragedy
a funny little tragedy
a funny little tragedy Yeah I dream about this day Seeing you go down this way
That's all I got to say Solo Maybe some day
if I see you again Things will be different and we can be friends But for now I believe You better walk away
The little soldier and me
We go our separate ways I can watch you walking Tears running down your face It's a funny little tragedy
a funny little tragedy
a funny little tragedy Yeah, I dream about this day Seeing you down this way
That's all I got to say Solo Out

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>