

Burn Down Los Angeles

Rival Sons

I come from the mountains, down to the water.
I come to drink from the dreams of your sons and daughters,
I come from the summer off of the rails, with my hammer in hand about to hit it on the nail. I'm gonna burn down Los Angeles, burn down Los Angeles. I come for revenge for my broken dreams.
I didn't come to wait tables or park limousines.
I come to get up from my hands and knees.
I come to steal the honey from the killer bees.
I'm gonna burn down Los Angeles, burn down Los Angeles.
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>