

Reflections (feat. Example) [Fourward Remix]

Jacob Plant

That girl I used to know, where did she go? Maybe I chased her away
(Reflections of us)

That man I used to be no longer seen, maybe he wasted away
(Reflections of us)

It's only now I can see what we became
(Reflections of us)

Been over it now but I still can't breathe your name (your name)(Reflections)Yo, (reflections), this never was the plan Stan

Up in alms like the Can-Can, in the middle of the street
And you're beeping your horn like you're Chitty Chitty Bang Bang
I'm a madman on reflection

We both made promises, couple novices
Honestly like that's stating the obvious
Sounds like I resent you, equally mad
I'm just a little less mental
(Reflections of us)

That girl I used to know, where did she go? Maybe I chased her away
(Reflections of us)

That man I used to be no longer seen, maybe he wasted away
(Reflections of us)

It's only now I can see what we became
(Reflections of us)

Been over it now but I still can't breathe your name
Breathe your name
Breathe your name

Breathe your nameYo, (reflections), we're both looking loved up
Except I'm looking at a photo, was back in Jan down at Koko

Lovely to so-so, love's now a no-show
Still got the vids of you freaking on GoPro
Kept me going when we'd faded

I can still picture it in slow-mo, ho ho
Now it's Dorothy and Toto over the rainbow
Still can't breathe your name though

(Reflections of us)

(Reflections of us)

(Reflections of us)

But I still can't breathe your name
(Reflections)

Breathe your name

Breathe your name

Breathe your name

Breathe your name(Reflections)

Yo, (reflections), this never was the plan, Stan
Up in alms like the Can-Can, in the middle of the street
And you're beeping your horn like you're Chitty Chitty Bang Bang
I'm a madman on reflection
We both made promises, couple novices
Honestly like that's stating the obvious
Sounds like I resent you, equally mad
I'm just a little less mental
