Shirin

Jens Lekman

Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin When Shirin cuts my hair it's like a love affair Let those locks fall to the ground or let them stay there I show her my passport, what I looked like But she just smiles and lets me know it's gonna be all rightShirin Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin When Shirin cuts my hair her mama's sitting in the rocking chair She tells me stories from the war in Iraq cause they were there Shirin pulls my head to the side But in the mirror I can see a tear in her eye Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin Shirin ShirinYour hands are soft Your hands are soft just like silk You're a drop of blood You're a drop of blood in my glass of milkYour hands are soft Your hands are soft just like silk You're a drop of blood You're a drop of blood in my glass of milkWhen Shirin does her magic to my frizzy straws Immigration and tax representatives stumble upon their lawns But what if it reaches the government That you have a beauty salon in your own apartment I won't tell anyone! Shirin Shirin Shirin I won't tell anyone! Shirin Shirin Shirin I won't tell anyone!
