

I'm Not the Devil

Cody Jinks

I'm not the devil you think that I am it.
It ain't no excuse but I'm just a man .
I slipped and I fell it got out of hand but I'm not the devil you think that I am. Whatin no gun held to my head, I got caught up believing in lies that were said.
And in a moment of weakness I stumbled and I made my bed. But I'm not the devil you think that I am.
ain't no excuse but I'm just a man.
I slipped and I fell it got out of hand but I'm not the devil you think that I am. There's ten thousand reasons for you not to stay and Noone would blame you if you want it that way.
It might take some time but I'll show you that I'm worth the wait.
But I'm not the devil you think that I am.
It ain't no excuse but I'm just a man I slipped and I fell it got out of hand.
But I'm not the devil you think that I am
And I'll spend forever doing all that I can to prove I'm not the devil you think that I am I'm not the devil.
