Take What You Want (feat. 5 Seconds of Summer)

ONE OK ROCK

Take what you want Take what you want and go Take what you want Take what you want and go Take what you want Take what you want and go Take what you want I don't want anything in our broken home Not the memories or the things we own Not the picture of us on the wall So take what you want Can you hear me? I'm tryna hear you Silence strikes like a hurricane I'm singing for you, you're screaming at me It's hard to see your tears in the pouring rainTake what you want, take what you want and go Take what you want, take what you want and go Take what you want, take what you want and go Just go now, just go, go, goStill remember a time when you felt like home You and me up against the great unknown You were my life, now you're out of my life Yeah, I guess that's lifeCan you hear me? I'm tryna hear you Silence strikes like a hurricane I'm singing for you, you're screaming at me It's hard to see your tears in the pouring rainTake what you want, take what you want and go Take it, no reason for me to hold on Look in my eyes, I'm letting go Keep it, don't need it, don't need it, don't need it Take what you want, take what you want and goCan you hear me? I'm tryna hear you Silence strikes like a hurricane I'm singing for you, you're screaming at me It's hard to see your tears in the pouring rain, in the pouring rain I don't want anything in our broken home Not the memories or the things we own All the memories Take what you want, take what you want and goCan you hear me?
