

Diamond In the Witch House

Mastodon

White is the line
Separates the rivers from the dirt
Out of wild
I wonder who's the one Within, the one and only eye Can you see there's a child
Standing idle by as still the steps
Who am I to cause this emptiness Within the sea
Cleanse my soul
Of all I've been
Bring me free to this, clarity
Clarity
Trouble runs then
Eyes and tides they twist and make the dirt
Pains subside
And sweeps across the Earth again Within the sea
To cleanse my soul
Of all I've been
Bring me free to this, clarity
Clarity Within, the one and only eye I'm standing
Deep in these waters
Bleeding free and into drag us on
To new visions
Only loss fills my void
Only the void, connects me
With these mountains of dust, blood, and soil
The stones, border the plains of truth
Those men, they sacrifice
A sacrifice Don't just bleed us, and leave us to ourselves
We will return, so deeply hurt
And we will shatter you
