RAIN

Ben Platt

[Verse 1]
You're saying
You've been through this before
You gave away all your secrets
To someone who up and?left?you in pieces
I?know the feeling, believe meI know?the prices you've gotta pay
I'm sacrificing my freedom
And all just to get somebody to see me
Nobody said it was easy[Pre-Chorus]
My heart's been broken and broken and broken and broken
But I keep, keep on hoping and hoping and hoping and hoping
That if it keeps on breaking and breaking and breaking and breaking
That one day it'll open and open and open and open and open for you
[Chorus]
Hey!
I know we've both been afraid
But we can't run from the wind and the thunder
When we're dancing under the rain, the rain, the rainHey!
I know we got what it takes
Ain't gonna run from the wind and the thunder
When we're dancing under the rain, the rain, the rain
We're dancing under the rain[Verse 2]
Breathe deep, let it wash over you
We're slowly becoming lovers
I promise you we won't be like the others
We won't go running for cover
[Pre-Chorus]
My heart is broken and broken and broken and broken
But I keep, keep on hoping and hoping and hoping and hoping
That if it keeps on breaking and breaking and breaking and breaking
That one day it'll open and open and open and open and open for you[Chorus]
Hey!
I know we've both been afraid
But we can't run from the wind and the thunder
When we're dancing under the rain, the rain, the rainHey!
I know we got what it takes
Ain't gonna run from the wind and the thunder
When we're dancing under the rain, the rain, the rain
We're dancing under the rain[Bridge]
Broken and broken and broken and broken
(We're dancing under the rain)
But I keep, keep on hoping and hoping and hoping and hoping

(Dancing under the rain)
That if it keeps on breaking and breaking and breaking and breaking
That one day it'll open and open and open and open and open for you[Chorus]
Hey!
I know we've both been afraid
But we can't run from the wind and the thunder
When we're dancing under the rain, the rain, the rainHey!
I know we got what it takes
Ain't gonna run from the wind and the thunder
When we're dancing under the rain, the rain, the rain
We're dancing under the rain
