Echos

Welcome to the room I hide in
I'd invite you to stay but I'm tryna
Get out of hereThe windows see my pain they feel it
The curtains know my name they scream it
Get out of hereI don't know why I can never leave
When all that I'm left with are memories
I guess I want your ghost as my companyThis house is full of the things we did
But you're still ringing in my empty head
I can't let go of the way we left
I can't let go of you
And now I'm hanging on by a thread
But you're still ringing in my empty head
I can't let go of the way we left
I can't let go of youTo the left and down the hallway
Pictures hang from crooked nails
Get out, get out
I can't get out of hereThe doord keep falling off I feel them
The rooms have twisted thoughts and I hear them
Get out of hereI don't know why I can never leave
When all that I'm left with are memories
I guess I want your ghost as my companyThis house is full of the things we did
But you're still ringing in my empty head
I can't let go of the way we left
I can't let go of you
And now I'm hanging on by a thread
But you're still ringing in my empty head
I can't let go of the way we left
I can't let go of youAnd this house is full
Of the things we did
And my bed has known
Every inch of your skin
Well I can't let go
Of the way that we left
Now my bath it floods
With your silouhetteThis house is full of the things we did
But you're still ringing in my empty head
I can't let go of the way we left
I can't let go of youAnd now I'm hanging on by a thread
But you're still ringing in my empty head
I can't let go of the way we left
I can't let go of you?
