

The Young Prince and Princess

Renaissance

And you would cause the sun to see your light and then be shamed
You cover darkness with a thousand secret flames
With your love, oh my love, oh my love, my love
And I would cause the winds to blow a hundred different days
And bring the perfumes of the gardens of the ways
Of your love, oh my love, oh my love, my love
Crystal and the clay, nights and the days
All on the prince's seal
Eagle of the sky, lion of the earth
This is what the seal is worth, what the seal is worth
Holds all of the dreams of a man
Tapestries and wishes of man
Pictures and visions of man
The spirit of the soul of the man
And he would vow to love her for the rest of all his days
