

The Crystal Cat

Dan Deacon

im gonna get my bathing suit on gonna get my base face on gonna get my hat out of loan gonna get my space face on im gonna turn all snakes into bone go wishing the stone keep the crystal cat cold gotta get to the throne hope my baby
may we meet a beastman hold us there happy but by one hand gonna get my pile of stone gonna my loud loud gong gonna get my men into rows you better cover them toes big carrot throne
let them take a load
the crystal cat gets cold
