Orgy

you can't escape what makes you tragic you know vicious 'cause you want to be leaving time possessed to please you what might have been was never the way you envisioned things so difficult to stop pretending what's this to you anyway turn down the voluptuous keeping close to me again hold back your virtues you're fearless in motion you found your way so why keep asking me nothing common suits you, you live again in solitary look away for now beautiful alone now who decides to settle down maybe nobody really cares
what's this to you anyway turn down the voluptuous
you're fearless in motion something dirty's got you dear makes me want to be with you something painful's with you dear makes me want to be with you you're better off saying nothing wish for a happy ending you're better off saying nothing repent so all's forgiven something dirty's got you dear
