

Easy Money

Electric Light Orchestra

One, two, three... Tell me I'm mistaken
I must be kinda slow
But the only time you ever cared
Was when you needed more... easy money, easy money You got out of control and you sold your soul for easy money. If you see a sucker standing at your door
Bring him in and make him grin
Then take him to the store
Easy money, easy money
Watch out from above
You broke into the bank of love
Easy money.
Some people never learn to stop when they've had enough
Easy money, easy money
Some people only have to shop when the going gets tough. I've come to the conclusion, it's like the old man said
The only thing you gave me was shit and promises
Easy money, whoa, whoa, whoa, easy money
One day you'll have to earn all the money that you burn Easy money. Take it, Jeff... Easy money. Wha, wha, yeah! Some people never learn to stop when they've had enough
Easy money, easy money
Some people only have to shop when the going gets tough.
Funny thing about it
Don't even make me blue
'Cause there's no better deal around
Than saying goodbye to you
Easy money, easy money. You snatched that cash right into your stash, easy money
You got out of control and you sold your soul for easy money
Easy money (woo, woo, woo), easy money.
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>