

How Do You Heal a Broken Heart

Chris Walker

I can't believe what i just heard
    Could it be true
Are you the girl I thought I knew
The one who promised me her love
    Where did it go
Does anybody ever know That feels like it will never beat this much again
    Oh no
    I just can't let go
That feels like it will never love this much again
    Oh no
Tonight I'll hold what could be right
Tomorrow I'll pretend to let you go
And were you ever what you seemed
    Or was I a fool who fell in love
    With his own dream
And now you say you want to leave
    Start a new life today
Those words I thought you'd never say Tonight I'll hold what could be right
    Tomorrow I'll pretend to
    Wake and put it all behind me
And find that I have finally found
    A new life
    In my soul
And find that I know how to let you go
    You go
Tonight I'll hold what could be right
    Tomorrow i'll pretend to
    Wake and put it all behind me
And find that I know how to let you go
