

Wanna Be Your Baby

Zara Larsson

sometimes at night when i turn up the lights I be thinking about you baby baby baby yeah
tossing my bed on these thoughts in my head got me loosing my breath now baby baby baby yeah
tell me what would you do if you only knew how i feel about you, about you-uh I wanna be your first your last
your everything
I wanna be in your arms
and definitely
I wanna be someone, you keep coming back to see I wanna be what I wanna be who
wanna be your baby
deep down inside there's an unending fire and i just can't contain it baby baby baby yeah
You're the only one to blame show me that you feel the same I wanna hear you say my name
baby baby baby yeah
tell me what would you do if you only knew how I feel about you about you, you, you I wanna be first
your last
your everything
and definitely
I wanna be someone you keep coming back to see I wanna be what I wanna be who Wanna be your baby
oh oh ohhhhh
oh ohhhh
oh oh ohhhhh
oh ohhhh ohoh
I wanna be first
your last

your everything
I wanna be in your arms and definitely
I wanna be someone you keep coming back to see
I wanna be who
I wanna be your baby
I wanna be your baby
baby, baby, babyyy
