That's Love

Oddisee

When you told me the truth, even if it really hurt
'Cuz you knew a lie was worst-(That's Love)
When you let me burrow money, that you didn't really have
'Cuz you knew what I was worth-(That's Love)
When I was at my worst, you would tell me I would blow
When I thought that I would burst-(That's Love)
You taught me how to help others, and through that discovered
How to put myself first-

And here we are again, just confronting fears
Whether pain, or gain, it's a bunch of tears
Blood, sweat, and peers, probably disappear
When smoke starts to clear, their persistence near Pay attention to the folks, who're fan of the flames
They is the ones who matter most, In the gravity game
When stakes weigh you down, and they stay around

And pick up pieces, of you off the ground That's love That's love That's love Aye, that's love That's love That's love That's love, love, love

That's love

When you were giving me advice, that I seldom ever took But your hand never shook-(That's Love)

Off knowing that you were right, never shooken, living right Just gave me that look-(That's Love)

When i had to learn the hard way, and you would let me fall

But never did it out of spite(That's Love)

You told me never burn a bridge If you build it, then you need it Whether a river or a brook-

And here we are again, in the cross of paths

Darwin's our friendship, strong as glass

But our strength lies in our first thoughts that laugh at

The things that bring most hurt hearts to clash

Funk passed the ball, beat bounced the brawl

Pass it, penniless, blame games, and all Had a few deals, time out to chill

But knowing when you need space means you feel

In love

That's love That's love Aye, that's love That's love That's love That's love, love, love
That's loveOoooooo, we try to tell ourselves

That we don't really need it anymore As if a million dollars, or the bottom of a bottle Or a carton, never cheated before
So you start with the "I don't need it, all i need is money"
"You can give it to me, but you'll never get it from me"
Yea you refused to play, but you was still in the game
Like it, or not, let me explain

Now see-

There's a tough kind, a too much kind
A not enough kind, a rather rushed kind
And irrupt kind, a go nuts kind
A hold up, maybe we should take it slow kind
A when you know kind, it started off as friends
But then over time, it began to show kind
And if we love each other, but we can't stay together
We'll do worst than better, gotta go kind love That's love That's love Ave, that's love That's love

And that's love That's love That's love Aye, that's love That's love That's love That's love. That's love That's love. That's love.
