Wrong Side of Love

Augustana

I'm hanging on, I'm hurting
I'm backing down, you're starting over
You and I, we've had enough
The wrong side of loveEven if my heart was burning
Wouldn't stop the world from turning over
We've had a lot, I've had enough
The wrong side ofKeep running, baby, don't look back
Keep running down a one way track
You'll be the one to break my heart in two
I'll be the one to take the hit for youIf I had a chance, I'd take it

If I had a heart, I'd break it open

You and I, we've had enough

The wrong side of

Keep running, baby, don't look back

Keep running down a one way track

You'll be the one to break my heart in two

I'll be the one to take the hit for youYou can't walk away

From what your heart knows

And I'm holding on

'Til you let me go

You let me goAnd all the dreams I had

They're lost along the way

And all the words you said

That you never meant to sayWell, no one else is gonna love you like I do

Come a little closer, honey, I can't live without you

No one else is gonna love you like I do

No one else, no one else

You can't walk away

From what your heart knows

You can't trade today for tomorrow

And I'm holding on 'til you let me go

'Til you let me go'Til you let me go

Let me go
