

Only One

John Butler Trio

There's something haunting me, running on thin ice
It's nothing you can see, I do all I can to hide
And all the rolling days, all the lonely nights
You don't know your place, all the fights I keep on reading the same chapter
I cannot breathe, holding hiding truth
You always know when just to say let go To me you are the only one
Who can help unwind my tangled mind
I am the seed but you're the sun
I'm telling anybody tell everybody
Did they tell ya man that you can't fly?
Did they clip your wings when you did try?
Did they say you could when you know can't?
Did you build your castles out of sand? I keep on reading the same chapter
I cannot breathe, holding hiding truth
You always know when just to say let go To me you are the only one
Who can help unwind my tangled mind
I am the seed but you're the sun
I'm telling anybody tell everybody To me you are the only one
Who can help unwind my tangled mind
I am the seed but you're the sun
I'm telling anybody tell everybody
The only one
The only one
The only one
The only one
The only one
