

Bae

The Front Bottoms

When you realize the crew you roll with
Is actually what makes you anxious
When you realize the hand you hold with Is opposite the hand it's supposed to be Bae, Bae, Bae, Bae I gotta move my car, I gotta move your couch
I learnt that love tastes good, you shoved it in my mouth
I got all twisted up, you help straighten me out
I gotta wake up early, I gotta move your couch
There's people right outside my door
I wanna help them but I don't know what they're looking for They've been in and out here all day Grind my teeth as a dog pushes up against my leg Leg, Leg, Leg, Leg I gotta move my car, I gotta move your couch
I learnt that love tastes good, you shoved it in my mouth
I got all twisted up, you help straighten me out
I gotta wake up early, I gotta move your couch
I gotta move my car, I gotta move your couch
I learnt that love tastes good, you shoved it in my mouth
I got all twisted up, you help straighten me out
I gotta wake up early, I gotta move your couch When you realize the crew you roll with
Is actually what makes you nervous
