

Torment Sorrow Misery Strife

Therapy?

Torment Sorrow Misery Strife
Screaming our way to the time of light()
Under dark or metal gray
I want skies of ink and blue
In this unfamiliar place
I wanna see the same anew
But I don't know what to do
Cuz you're bitter and you're cruel
And I think you need a night on yourself Torment Sorrow Misery And Strife
Screaming our way to the time of light

You used to be the beast
Now we only got the bones
I guess the fake shit can't control
What is it I have to do?
Whatever chose I have to fake
To help you get a night all for yourself
