

Damned If I Do

Life of Agony

Why do i feel so alone in a crowd of people i know?
Is it wrong to feel so insecure and so unappealing?
Why walk around in disguise with a fake grin on my face?
What would it prove?
What would i gain?
I'd still feel so out of place.Damned if i do
Damned if i don't
But i won't turn out like you
Damned if i do
Damned if i don't
But i won't turn out like you
Midlife crisis at the age of 22, who knew?
I need some answers cross the street
And down the avenue i stopped
For the woman and paid five bucks
Got my palm read and she said:
you shouldn't be smiling boy,
This life line says you're already dead.Just keep on moving forward never turning back.
But with every step ahead i take they pull me two steps back.
They pull me two steps back.
Damned if i do
Damned if i don't
But i won't turn out like you
Damned if i do
Damned if i don't
But i won't turn out like you
