

I Haven't Said I Love You In a While

O'Connor Band & Mark O'Connor

The first time I laid eyes on you
I couldn't look away
But now I watch the cars go by Wondering why I stayed
The man who fell in love with you
I don't know where he's gone
But the man who's sitting here right now
Ain't good at moving on
Oh, I've walked with you
A thousand miles
Held you when you cried
Like a lonely child
I've made you laugh so hard
That it hurt to smile
But I haven't said I love you in a while
It never feels like you are here
Whenever you're around
Your head is flying through the clouds
My heart is on the ground
You say you don't know what to say
I know that isn't true
The world has spun so many times
You're a different you
Oh, I've walked with you
A thousand miles
Held you when you cried
Like a lonely child
I've made you laugh so hard
That it hurt to smile
But you haven't said you love me in a while
Ooooo, Ooooo
Ooooo, Ooooo
The first time I laid eyes on you
I couldn't look away
But now I watch the time go by Wondering what to say
Oh, I've walked with you
A thousand miles
Held you when you cried
Like a lonely child
I've made you laugh so hard
That it hurt to smile
But I haven't said I love you in a while
