

Flowers By the Door

T.S.O.L.

All my life it has been a dream
An endless nightmare so it seems
Tonight's the night, yes this is the end
You've heard it before, this is what I said
All I think about gone yesterdays
All the things that people would say
Well tonight's the night, I'm gonna find the truth, oh yeah
Tonight's the night, goodbye to you, goodbye, goodbye
I can't take it anymore
No, I can't make it anymore
No don't say nothing 'cause baby there ain't no more
Just leave your flowers by the door, leave 'em by the door
Leave 'em by the door
Girl you can't see me now, 'cause I'm in the day
It's all over, no one left to pay
I'm finally happy with no yesterday, no
I'm still alive, but I'm in the grave, I'm in the grave
Because I can't take it anymore
No, I can't make it anymore
No don't say nothing 'cause baby there ain't no more, oh
Just leave your flowers by the door, leave 'em by the door
Leave 'em by the door
