

Summer Breeze

SOJA

You can feel it in the summer
Breeze, there's something in the
Trees, some kind of long lost feeling
It kinda feels like there's Something wrong, something that We're doing, or not doing
It's far gone...
Another way that maybe we
Forgot, but maybe we still need..what am I not remembering...
Cuz I can feel it in the Summer breeze, and it keeps
Calling me...
So I'm singing out so
Birds start singing again
And I'm playing just so
Bells start ringing again.
And I'm yelling, hoping I'll
Start thinking again
And chasing after Your
In-born concept I catch a flicker in the mirror
Cuz I'm looking for You
But all I see is me but I know
That's hardly true.
The T.V. lies to Me
Red, green and blue
Turn it to black and stare
And I can still see You...I try to search inside myself
To find the right and the wrong
To find the right and the wrong
But it's so complicated; knowing
What to keep anymore
It's even harder to put into words
Or write in a song
But for some reason I can't
Move along
Cuz karma happens, doesn't Matter by which bible I got
And I can feel it in the air
Whether I read it or not
So I'm continuing to search And watch this road that I walk
It's on the tip of my tongue
So i talk
I can remember in my mind
Way back before my time A memory lived through

My DNA line and...
I can see it in Jah signs
That we could be just fine
Let history reveal the truth
We need to find but...
The memory's are long gone
Forgotten truths hid from
The youths through many
Years by babylon so...
So we sing it in this song
With hopes to reserect
Consciousness back through
Our daughters and our sons

Yeah

I got this feelin that I've
Had in me before I could speak
And when I could, I couldn't tell
People how it felt to me
It's like there's something in
My heart that lets me know
That I'm free, but i don't ever
Know when that will be
That's if I name it. Also, if
It even happens at all
Cuz I'm related to a place
I've never been to or saw...
...until that day I'm watching
Waiting on this road that I walk
It's in the back of my mind
All day long
