

Siren

The Chainsmokers & Aazar

[Verse 1]

Three weeks down, but you're on the mend
You swear that you were free from my passenger seat
As we drive through the night, yeah, it starts again
You blame it on me because you're three pills deep [Pre-Chorus]
I tell myself I love the silence
But maybe I just wanna hear the sound of the sirens
I tell myself I love the silence
But maybe I just wanna hear the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens Get Down

[Drop]

[Pre-Chorus]

Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Here come the sound of the sirens
Get Down

[Drop]
