So High

Doja Cat

Blow, weed, coke, pop x

Speedin up the heartbeat, bangin in my chest

When you put it on me you relieve my stressYou got me so high, takin deep, deep breaths

You get me so high

You get me so high

I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high You get me so high

You get me so high

I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high

You get me so high You get me so high

I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high

You get me so high, high

You got me so turnt up

This dude gotta be so highWeed always on the mind

Now he always on my mind

Doja.

Know you want some of this purrYou ain't gotta say a word

Just blunt that let's get burnt

Then we'll roll up a hunnit fuckin' blunts

All up in my mouth, now I'm all up in yo... This nigga got pounds of it all up in his trunk

Now we both look Asian

He waving and I'm drunk

I got dank shit in my cup

You know what Imma do to you

I could get real used to you

Blow, weed, x and we sipping on that juice, juice

That's just what she choose to do

Man, this shit these drugs'll do to you

Blow, weed, coke, pop x

Speedin up the heartbeat, bangin in my chest

When you put it on me you relieve my stress

You got me so high, takin deep, deep breaths

You get me so high

You get me so high

I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high

You get me so high

You get me so high

I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high

You get me so high

You get me so high

I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high
You get me so high,
