

Never Let Go (feat. Keri Hilson)

Anthony Hamilton

How can I prepare you
For how I wanna love you?
And I know you've been hurt in pain and love
Is all the same in your eyes
So baby, take a chance to really let me show you
And if you open up
I teach you how to love for life
'Cause the lonely never win, yeah
But if I love ya
(I'll never let you go)
Boy, can I trust ya?
(Just tell me what you want)
To be there when I need ya
(Girl, put your heart in mine)
I promise that I'll never let it go
I don't wanna cry no more
(No not a single tear)
'Cause I've been broken
(But now that I am here)
Teach me how to love again
(Girl, put your heart in mine)
I promise that I'll never let it go
Yeah, I done seen a lot of things
I heard a lot of men claim
They gon' love me forever
Tell me now what makes you different?
I gave all I had, all the way down to my last
So boy I need you right now to show me how
To trust my heart over my mind, yeah
'Cause the lonely never win
But if I love ya
(I'll never let you go)
Boy, can I trust ya?
(Just tell me what you want)
To be there when I need ya
(Girl, put your heart in mine)
I promise that I'll never let it go
I don't wanna cry no more
(No not a single tear)
'Cause I've been broken
(But now that I am here)
Teach me how to love again

(Girl, put your heart in mine)
I promise that I'll never let it go
I never wanna let you go, no baby
Wanna love you with my heart and soul
But I gotta know
But if I love ya
(I'll never let you go)
Boy, can I trust ya?
(Just tell me what you want)
To be there when I need you
(Girl, put your heart in mine)
I promise that I'll never let it go
I don't wanna cry no more
(No not a single tear)
'Cause I've been broken
(But now that I am here)
Teach me how to love again
(Girl, put your heart in mine)
I promise that I'll never let it go
