

Rotting in Vain

Korn

I wouldn't be angry if you just fucking cried
Your tears would arouse me, refreshing my supply
The suffering is fading, I scream into the sky
Repulsion invades me, I say goodbye
Digging deep inside of me
Getting past this agony
I can't seem to get away
Another day rotting in vain
I wouldn't be angry if things would stay the same
You're fighting the torment that helps me feed my pain
The suffering is fading, I scream into the sky
Repulsion invades me, I say goodbye
Digging deep inside of me
Getting past this agony
I can't seem to get away
Another day rotting in vain
I can't take this
Eyta boorata seeka beeta oooh rah seeka eyta boorata seeka
I can't fuck this
Eyta boorata seeka beeta oooh rah seeka eyta boorata seeka
I can't fake this
Digging deep inside of me
Getting past this agony
I can't seem to get away
Another day rotting in
Digging deep inside of me
Getting past this agony
I can't seem to get away
Another day rotting in vain
