

I Found Myself Today (Acoustic Version)

A Change of Pace

I will admit
I tend to be a little selfish
But only when it comes to
Something that i couldn't miss
The hardest part is trying
To know what I really want
(Woah-oh-oh-oh Woah-oh-oh)
So I'll apologize ahead
For dragging you along
(Woah-oh-oh-oh Woah-oh-oh)(Chorus)
Hey, theres just no better way
When theres nothing left to
Say, That you take back
All the mistakes
I guess I finally
Found myself today
I know the feeling to be
Caught up in the motion
I often wonder if it's
Instinct or addiction
I'm slowly learning how to fake
I even have a clue
(Woah-oh-oh-oh Woah-oh-oh)
Because I'm supposed to be
The very best at what I do
(Woah-oh-oh-oh Woah-oh-oh)(Chorus)
Hey, theres just no better way
Say, That you take back
All the mistakes
I guess I finally
Found myself today
I always feel
That the cloud around me
Is so free beneath my feet
And I must fall through
But I think I'm might meant to
If thats what it would take
For me to see(Chorus) x2
Hey, theres just no better way
Say, That you take back

All the mistakes
I guess I finally
Found myself today I think I finally
Found myself today
