

Let It Ride (feat. Caroline Glaser)

The New Velvet

There's more to me than these old shoes I got on I might look a little green but girl I'm gunna take you there gotta fake a smile sometimes but the truth is in my eyes look a little deeper baby ooh I'm gunna take you there so hard to tell you what I see in you and I maybe we were meant to be in another life just sitting here with you, it feels so right, it feels so right can we start with something small and let it ride
I'm not a fan of the way we all live love and die don't you see the stars aligning
you say I'm sunshine but you can take your time I'm gunna give it all to ya ooh I'm gunna take you there
so hard to tell you what I see in you and I
just sitting here with you, it feels so right, feels so right
and let it ride
you look so good you got me wishin' that you were mine and the world starts shiftin' my heart feels like a cannon ball oh its not my fault the strongest men fall so cross my name off your wall so hard to tell you what I see in you and I
maybe we were meant to be in another life
just sitting here with you, it feels so right, feels so right
so hard to tell you what I see in you and I
maybe we were meant to be in another life
just sitting here with you, it feels so right, feels so right
