

Pressure (feat. RKCB)

GTA

There's something I can take from your fingertips
But it's hard to be the only one playing with
Do I fake the fight to prove I'm right?
I'm twisting that kind of [?]
And I'm colorblind, don't turn my lights off
I'll catch the sun tonight Maybe I should go
Listen to the voices that are telling me
I shouldn't be here
Better take it slow
Under pressure, I'm a all cry out
Could the pressure [?]
Under pressure, I'm a make it your walls come down
Under the pressure pushing my heart out now
Haven't seen the deep end anyways
Contemplate the feeling, looking for a reason to stay
Can you leave my heart for times I tried to get you out my life? Maybe I should go
Listen to the voices that are telling me
I shouldn't be here
But I need to know
Under pressure, I'm a all cry out
Could the pressure [?]
Under pressure, I'm a make it your walls come down
Under the pressure pushing my heart out now Are you looking for my intention?
Have you ever been under pressure?
You know that I love the tension
Will we take it all in?
Maybe I should go
Listen to the voices that are telling me
I shouldn't be here
But I need to know
Under pressure, I'm a all cry out
Could the pressure [?]
Under pressure, I'm a make it your walls come down
Under the pressure pushing my heart out now
