

Savages (feat. Tom Swoon)

Five Knives

Dead and done,
it's not enough to make me scared to run
It's just the thought of losing me to us
Every day with you is a paper cut, you're dangerous
Can't win the war if we can't keep the battle civilized
Should be my savior but instead you leave me terrorized
Take the crown, no, I don't want it now
Castles crumble to the ground If we can't find heaven then we'll keep raising hell
So let me go now, let's burn our love down
If we don't kill the crush, we'll keep killing ourselves
So let me go now, let's burn our bridge down
Oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, we're savages!
Oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, we're savages! Cut the line, don't leave me swingin' like a warning sign
Sometimes the punishment don't fit the crime
It's hard to save your skin, but they're the prize
It's all a lie
The sun goes black over our love infested paradise
Your light behind me growing sweeter in your wild eyes
Take the crown, no, I don't want it now Castles crumble to the ground
We kiss, we lie, we fight for our lives
We crash, we hope, we fight for control
We kill, we lie, we fight for our lives
We crash, we hope, we fight for control
If we can't find heaven then we'll keep raising hell
So let me go now, let's burn our love down
If we don't kill the crush, we keep killing ourselves
So let me go now, let's burn our bridge down
Oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, we're savages!
Oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, we're savages!
Oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh eh-oh, we're savages!
