

Whole Lotta Woman

Kelly Clarkson

What you say?
Girl, this my body You ain't know? Texas women do it bigger
(What? Say it ain't so)
In the south, it gets no realer, baby
Pot full of grits, I'm hotter than your mama's supper, boy
Better get with it
Better watch your mouth, I might burn you, boy
You goin', uh, downtown, gonna work
Good love like dessert
If you scared, go to church
Whoo whoo, I'm a lover
Hold on tight, little country boy
I ain't no girl, I'm a boss with orders
All I'm needing is a baby to love me
Like a warm biscuit on a Sunday morning
I got what you want, I'm aiming to please
I got what it takes, I sure got the means
I got what you want: sugar, honey, iced tea
All eyes on me, oh, oh, baby I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the way I walk and toss my hips)
I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the sound of my voice to the gloss on my lips)
I'm a whole lotta woman
(Anything I see, I want, I get)
I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence, yeah One time for the green
And rolling like Tina
Loving hard ain't easy
Whoo whoo, if you mean it
Hold on tight, little country boy
I ain't no girl, I'm a boss with orders
All I'm needing is a baby to love me
I'm a warm biscuit on a Sunday morning
I got what you want, I'm aiming to please
I got what it takes, I sure got the means
I got what you want: sugar, honey, iced tea
All eyes on me, oh, oh, baby I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the way I walk and toss my hips)
I said, I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the sound of my voice to the gloss on my lips)
I'm a whole lotta woman
(Anything I see, I want, I get)
I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence Ain't no competition, babe

It's just can you keep up with me?
I can't do a thing about my wicked ways with gravity
Higher than the leaves, they fall from trees like D-O-double-Gs
I reside in Tennessee, but Texas still grows deep in me I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the way I walk and toss my hips)
Hey, I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the sound of my voice to the gloss on my lips)
I said, I'm a whole lotta woman
(Anything I see, I want, I get)
I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence Come on Wait, do it again
