

Lusus Naturae

Jeff Williams

Gnarled and mangled
Warped, deformed They see nightmares
A mutant swarm
I see beauty
Underneath
I see promise
In nature's freak A mystery of blood and bone
Souless, origin unknown
Twisted devil, villain lost in time
Mindless, born of bubbling ooze
Intelligence, I will infuse
A curse upon the world
But now you're mine
I will raise you up
Design the perfect beast
Elevate the savage
Use you to bring peace They don't know
They don't understand
There's a goal
It's my master plan The simple minded fools
Just see my plans abstruse
I'll give the monster's life a use Awaken my brood
Today you will rise
I've given you life
My Lusus Naturae
Open your eyes
Created in a Netherworld
Into this realm
You were hurled
But scientifically misunderstood
I will decode
And knowledge gain
Your mysteries I will explain
I'll lucubrate and chain you
For the good The fools that were placed in power
Tried to halt my dreams
They will fail to stop me
Grimm I will redeem I'm your God
I will make you grow
You're my own
Twisted embryo They call me sick, obsessed
A madman with no proof

In triumph
I will show the truthAwaken my brood
Today you will rise
I've given you life
My Lusus Naturae
Open your eyesWhen evolution fails
Science will prevail
What nature warped
I will restore
I will love
What all abhorThey call me sick, obsessed
I'll give the monster's life a useAwaken my brood
Today you will rise
I've given you life
My Lusus Naturae
Open your eyes
