

Bad Example

Pistol Annies

Somebody had to set a bad example
Teach all the prim and propers what not to do
Nobody around here wants to ramble
What the hell, that's what I was born to do Those swanky big brick houses don't amuse me
I live in a trailer but I drive a cadillac
I ain't never tried to impress nobody
I honk every horn and sticker on your back Somebody had to set a bad example
Teach all the prim and propers what not to do
Nobody around here wants to ramble
What the hell, that's what I was born to do All the girls that I grew up with went to college
Their rich daddies bought them a degree
But I'm a third generation bartender
And I like livin' from a tip jar week to week
Somebody had to set a bad example
Teach all the prim and propers what not to do
Nobody around here wants to ramble
What the hell, that's what I was born to do

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>