

The Come Up

Shaman's Harvest

I tried praying to sundown
I screamed at the mountain
Thought it might fall down at my feet
But I felt the rage
It was changing direction, oh no
Pushin' and pullin' on me
It made me believe in unseen enemy
Creatures that sit in the dark
Gnashin' their teeth
How can you breathe
When you feel eclipses of fire? Can't you see I'm fallin'?
I could use a hand getting off of the floor
Don't you hear me callin'?
I can't fight alone anymore
Lets get this march around the karma
Get satisfied, ain't nobody lookin' for sympathy
Stop wastin' time and get back on the grind
Even King Kong got nothin' on me
Once I could see I was my own enemy
My demons pushin' me to the dark
It's in my eyes, hard-fought eyes
With my fears burning in a pyre Can't you see I'm fallin'?
I could use a hand getting off of the floor
Don't you hear me callin'?
I can't fight alone anymore You can't bring the sun down as long as it's up
Sometimes (?) feels like too much
Forget summer callin'
Come on, you gotta run
Don't you come anymore
Can't you see I'm fallin'?
I could use a hand getting off of the floor
Don't you hear me callin'?
I can't fight alone anymore You can't bring the sun down as long as it's up
Sometimes (?) feels like too much
Forget summer callin'
Come on, you gotta run
Don't you come anymore
