

Lions

Samantha Crain

Bring all paralyzed things to my side
Let me see, let me see
Their bodies collide
Underneath, underneath the light Pray for wooden floors
We will all have bad dreams
Underneath, underneath the drippy sink
After all the ringing is gone to bed And I swear
All the eye saw the white
Is haunting me
I'm always waking up screaming
Where have you left me this time
And there on the table
Are all the stories you had told
Tracing lines
Of gold I couldn't see
When you told me go away
I don't want you around
After today Red mark
Right there
Over the doorway
Passover bring us some privacy
Take anything you want And eyes a lion's came
To rob us of our prey
We cry
Cause we lost more time
And we stood up with fight
And we broke down the door
We promised we would not
Be afraid any more Oh oh
Gonna get you through this
Gonna get, gonna get you through this oh Oh oh
Gonna get you through this
Gonna get, gonna get you through this oh
