

We Don't Care Anymore

Story of the Year

Underneath the gun in front of waiting eyes
Our time has just begun no second chance tonight
So we walk the longest days to live inside the shortest nights

We compromise our hearts to keep them satisfied
The shadows of our past, hard to ignore but judgment means nothing that's not what we're fighting for
We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

Underneath the gun in front of doubting eyes
We walk this path as one take on the world tonight
And we'll carve our names into their bones
We'll never sell ourselves that's not what we're fighting for
We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore
I won't let this love, I won't let this love die, I won't let it die
There is only one thing that matters this time
At the hands of judgment I won't let it die, no sacrifice, regrets left behind, I won't let it die
This time, yeah, this time I won't let it die, that's not what we're fighting for

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

No we don't care anymore

We don't care anymore

We don't care anymore
I won't let this love, I won't let this love die
