

High Heels (feat. Sink the Pink)

Melanie C

I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand
I'll be dancing home tonight With my high heels in my hand It's been five weeks since I
Started saving for my new shoes (New shoes)
They're coming out of the box tonight
They're gonna wow you (Wow you)
It's been seven hours since I played
The same tune in my room (In my room)
I'm getting ready for anything
Whole body glittering
Counting down the minutes
But the time's flow'n by
We've been going all night
But my feet haven't touched the ground
When the music stops playing it's not gonna get me down
Because I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand
I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand
I'm still feeling ten foot high
Keep this feeling my whole life
I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand It's been twenty minutes since I saw you
Standing in the corner there (Corner there)
Now we're dancing in the middle of
The room without a care (Without a care)
I'm giving all our inhibition to music lately (Lately)
Getting to know you, getting to know me
Loosing track of time 'cause we feel so free
I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand
I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand
I'm still feeling ten foot high
Keep this feeling my whole life
I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand You gotta love yourself
You gotta love yourself
You gotta love yourself
Above anybody else You gotta love yourself
You gotta love yourself
You gotta love yourself

You gotta love yourself
You gotta love yourself
You gotta love yourself
You gotta love yourself I'm still feeling ten foot high
Keep this feeling my whole life
I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand I'll be dancing home tonight
Coming out to the morning light
I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand I'm still feeling ten foot high
Keep this feeling my whole life
I'll be dancing home tonight
With my high heels in my hand
