

Close (feat. Kai Straw)

OTR

Baby, you ain't mine yet
I mean how could you be it's been like a breath
But I got my mind set
And I'll be slow with my approach so you know I'm 'bout respect 'Cause baby, I think you the one
I wanna kiss hershey, when the sunset
I wanna lift your feet with my love
Weaken them knees when we undress
But I've known you for five minutes
And there's a code you got, I get this
So let's start by movin' these hips Can we scoot a little bit closer, babe
Can we scoot a little bit closer, babe
Can we scoot a little bit closer, babe
Can we scoot a little bit closer, babe
But your friends say watch your heart
That boy gonna steal it, yeah, girl, we your cop cars
And yeah, I get it, you've gotta guard yourself
Girl, you've got scars about as large
As your heart was for who carved it out But baby, I think you're the one
And the past can't hold us ransom
And we can take it slow if you want
'Til I'm old if there's a chance some -
Day I'll be your man
When we lay in the same bed
But for now let's just start where we can Can we scoot a little bit closer, babe
Can we scoot a little bit closer, babe 'Cause every million starts with one
And every minute starts at nothin'
I ain't askin' for your love
Just a beginning that could spark it
'Cause every million starts with one
And every minute starts at nothin'
I ain't askin' for your love
Just a beginning that could spark it Can we scoot a little bit closer
Can we scoot a little bit closer Can we scoot a little bit closer, babe
Can we scoot a little bit closer, babe
